CIRCUIT COURT ROCK COUNTY

November Term, 1859.

Order for final judgment and sale of lands upon the report of the City Treasurer, for taxes of 1859.

City of Janesville against John Doe and others. Suit for Taxes.

THIS suit having been duly called at this, the November Term of this court, for the year of our Lord 1859, to wit, on Monday, the 28th day of November of said year, at the opening of this court, on motion of Ira Justin, Jr., City Treasurer of the city of Janesville, this court proceeded to hear and determine the same, and it appearing to this court, from the report of the said treasurer, that the several lots, lands, pieces of lands described in the said report are properly charged with the taxes, assessments, interest, costs and charges as set down in the said report; therefore it is ordered, adjudged and directed by this court that the said several lots, lands, pieces or parcels of land are liable for the said taxes, assessments, interest, costs and charges, as appears by the said report of the said treasurer, and that the said taxes, assessments, interest, costs and charges are a lien upon the several lots, lands, pieces or parcels of land, severally, as appears by the said report; and it is hereby further ordered, adjudged and directed by this court, that the several lots, lands, pieces or parcels of land be sold for the taxes, assessments, interest, costs and charges afore-said, as the same stands upon the said report of the said treasurer severally according to law. Dated November 28th, 1859.

By the court, DAVID NOGGLE, Judge.
